contribute towards the CGHS, the names of the dependent and eligible parent(s) of both husband and wife actually residing with them can be included in the CGHS card which is to be issued only in the name of the spouse (Govt. servant) drawing higher pay, by the concerned Department/office where he/she is working.

(c) In view of (a) and (b) above, the question does not arise.

(d) As the CGHS card is issued to the Govt. servant (spouse) having higher pay, the entitlement/status of medical facilities available under CGHS would be the same for all the dependent family members whose names are included in the said CGHS card. Therefore, in such cases, the question of one spouse (Govt. servant) having lesser pay getting lower entitlement for medical facilities under CGHS does not arise.

(e) In view of (d) above, the question does not arise.
